Dearest Mrs Sherman,

Just think how soon we will be facing your way - How glad we will all be to see you, dear heart - Do eat two eggs for your breakfast! I am glad that our hens are behaving - The other morning Mary, Ivy, Mum Annes and I went up to the "Chart" (it is a sort of village) and visited the natives, and were lucky in getting two dozen eggs and the promise of being supplied. It is a quaint spot, the daughter of the egg man has a little girl, we learned, with some trouble with her hip - She returned yesterday from London

Many thanks for your nice P.C. I am very sorry I have not sent ones that you like but trust that this time it will be satisfactory I shall be pleased to know whether you like this one. We live quite near these cliffs some places they are 300 ft. high from sea level

Yours truly Miss L. F. Wood
